

That time of year
Emily Edwards' French-style Vineyard clocks, £35 each, have a diameter of 34.5cm and will give your lounge that shabby chic Parisian feel.

Berry lovely

Velvet will add a touch of luxury to your scheme. Velvet berry burnout floral cushion, £15; scrunched velvet Aubergine cushion, £15; Aubergine faux fur throw, £150, all Homebase.

Bespoke blinds

Novatec can laminate your favourite floral fabric making it ready to use as a roller blind. Prices start at £89 sized 60Wx80cmD exc. fabric cost.

Blossoming beauties

Bloom into action and decorate your lounge with the darling buds of May!

Daisy delight

Unwind with a large cup of tea from your Daisy cup and saucer, in keeping with your room's theme, £9, John Lewis.

Wild walls

This wallpaper by Connell de la Mare is the result of collaboration between two artists. This design has taken old European ideas and given them a contemporary twist with modern colours. Girlie Bedroom comes in pink or blue and costs £35 per roll.

Blooming gorgeous

Celebrate spring with these feminine fabrics from Anna French. From left to right: Hollyhock in various colourways, Mandarin with Parasol, both £39 per m.

Floral features

These wall plates from John Lewis' Botanic Garden range cost from £6.35 and will capture the essence of spring all year round.

Springy seat

John Lewis' 30cm Spring Haven cushions, £25 each, come complete with a feather pad.

Blossoming business

This cushion is covered in Blossom Time. Knickerbean also has hundreds of different fabrics to choose from, such as Spring Time Berry and Hothouse Orchid featured here, with prices starting at £7.95 per m.

